NECK SIZE

Measure the strongest part of your neck, at the level of the Adam's apple, leaving a space the same width as a finger between the skin and the tape to keep it comfortable.

CHEST SIZE

Stand up straight, measure your torso, under your pectoral muscles. Make sure the measuring tape is horizontal, neither too loose nor too taut.

WAIST SIZE

Measure the natural hollow of the waist (between the last rib and the navel). Make sure the measuring tape is horizontal, neither too loose nor too taut.
